Engelin Teh, SC was admitted to the Singapore bar in 1979 after graduating from the University of Singapore with Honours. She was appointed Senior Counsel on 10 January 1998 and was admitted to the roll of solicitors of England and Wales since 16 October 2008.

With a wealth of experience of more than 3 decades in complex commercial litigation, Engelin has acted as counsel in numerous cases, spanning a wide spectrum of areas including banking and finance, company law, corporate and partnership disputes, real estate, commodities, corporate fraud, equity and trust, employment and executive compensation, insolvency, intellectual property, administrative law, landlord and tenancy, professional negligence, insurance and family law.

Having an active practice in international arbitration, Engelin has presided both as sole arbitrator and as part of a tribunal in both domestic and international arbitrations under the rules of the Singapore International Arbitration Centre and the International Chamber of Commerce. She has also represented clients as counsel in various domestic and international commercial arbitrations.

In the last decade, mediation has become a passion for Engelin who had set about acquiring the necessary skill set and experience. Her mediation qualifications are set out below. Given her vast and varied litigation experience, Engelin is well equipped as a mediator to assist parties to work through complex situations and navigate differences to achieve effective solutions. Being a mediator on the Singapore Mediation Centre (SMC) Principal Panel of Mediators and its Family Panel of Mediators, Engelin has mediated several cases referred by SMC and has successfully brought about settlement between parties in many of these cases. Engelin is also on the Panel of Mediators for the Centre for Dispute Resolution (State Courts) and the Family Dispute Resolution Registry (Family Justice Courts).

As a member of the Inquiry Panel of the Singapore Law Society for more than 10 years, Engelin has sat on inquiry committees, both as member and chairman, in relation to complaints against lawyers. Engelin also sits on the Disciplinary Tribunal Panel of Presidents and serves as a member of the Family Law Practice Committee of the Singapore Law Society and the Professional Development Committee of the Singapore Institute of Directors.

As part of providing service to clients, Engelin has conducted various seminars and in-house training programmes on corporate and commercial litigation and also on family and matrimonial law and practice.
